ASSESSMENTS AND THEIR DEFINITION

Assessments are structured evaluations designed to measure specific leadership competencies in various real-world scenarios. Each assessment provides insights into an individual's strengths and areas for development, enabling targeted improvement. Below are the key assessments used in the NBOL class:

Assessments	Definition
Think on Your Feet	An activity where participants are required to respond to unexpected questions or scenarios, testing their ability to think quickly, communicate clearly, and align responses with organizational objectives.
Role Play	A simulated activity where participants act out specific scenarios (e.g., managing a team or resolving conflicts) to demonstrate their leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills.
Business Case	A presentation or analysis of a real or hypothetical business scenario, requiring participants to demonstrate strategic thinking, financial acumen, and problem-solving abilities.
Leadership Questionnaire	A written assessment where participants answer questions related to leadership competencies, providing insights into their leadership style, decision-making, and self-awareness.
Group Activity	A collaborative exercise where participants work in teams to solve problems, make decisions, or complete tasks, demonstrating their ability to work effectively with others and influence group outcomes

COMPETENCIES AND THEIR DEFINITION

Competencies are essential leadership qualities that define an individual's ability to perform effectively in various professional scenarios. These competencies are assessed to identify strengths and areas for improvement, forming the basis for targeted leadership development. Below are the key competencies evaluated in the NBOL class:

CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The participant has strengths in collaboration and execution but requires improvement in strategic thinking, decision-making, and stakeholder influence. To enhance leadership effectiveness, it is recommended to focus on strategic planning, financial acumen, decision-making under pressure, and stakeholder engagement. Targeted training and mentorship will support professional growth and readiness for greater responsibilities.
