

Scenario

You have just been appointed as the first-ever Chief Digital and Technology Officer (CDTO) at Khazanah. This newly created position reflects the organisation's growing commitment to driving digital transformation and leveraging technology as a key strategic enabler.

As the new CDTO, you've convened a meeting with your direct reports and key team members to outline your vision for this new role. Your speech should focus on setting a strategic direction for digital transformation, enhancing technological capabilities, and developing a high-performing, innovative team. Bring out values such as being self-aware, having an entrepreneurial spirit, growth, curiosity and being able to lead from where you are. This is your first opportunity to make a strong impression as a leader, and your audience will be looking for clear direction and inspiration as you embark on this journey.

Your Task

Preparation (8 minutes)

You will have up to 8 minutes to think and prepare your speech. If you are ready before the time is up, please signal to the assessors.

Speech Delivery (15 minutes)

Deliver a 15-minute speech to the assessors, who will act as your direct reports.

Q&A Session (5 minutes)

After your speech, you will engage in a 5-minute Q&A session, where your "direct reports" (the assessors) will ask questions. Be ready to address questions on your strategic vision, leadership approach and how you plan to drive innovation and transformation in this new role.
